

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
PART A. WHAT IS ZONING?	3
• Brief history of zoning	3
• How is zoning different from ...
Planning?	3
Subdividing?	4
Building codes?	5
Easements and restrictive covenants?	5
Eminent domain or condemnation?	5
Licensing of businesses?	6
Nuisances?	7
• Special zoning situations	7
Land development projects	8
Historical area zoning	9
Low income housing	11
PART B. WHERE DOES ZONING LAW COME FROM?	14
• The legislature: zoning enabling act	14
• The city or town council: zoning ordinances	14
• The courts: case law	16
• Community comprehensive plans	17
• Federal law	18
PART C. VARIANCES AND SPECIAL-USE PERMITS	21
• Zoning restrictions	21
• Uses protected from (some) zoning restrictions	22
• General standards for variances	23
• Use variances: special standard	25
• Dimensional variances: special standard	26
• Modifications	29
• Special-use permits	30
• Successive applications for same property	32
• Conditional relief	34
PART D. ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS	36
• What is an administrative appeal?	36
• Role of the zoning board	36
• How to take an administrative appeal	38
• When to take an administrative appeal	38

• Appeals from Historic District Commission decisions . . .	39
• Appeals from Planning Board decisions	40
PART E. THE CONCEPT OF “NONCONFORMANCE”	42
• Generally	42
• Nonconforming uses and dimensional nonconformities . .	42
• Changing a nonconforming use	44
• Abandoning a nonconforming use	45
• Substandard lots	47
• Automatic “merger” of substandard lots	47
PART F. THE ZONING BOARD OF REVIEW	49
• What does the zoning board do?	49
• Zoning board membership	49
• Limits on the zoning board’s power	50
• Zoning procedure, step by step	51
• Pre-application conference	51
Filing the application for relief	52
Referral to the planning board	53
Notice to the neighbors and others	54
Public hearing	56
Building a foundation for the decision	57
Making the decision	59
Record-keeping	59
• Proving the case	60
Ordinary witnesses	61
Expert witnesses	63
Board members’ own knowledge	65
• Appeals from zoning board decisions	66
PART G. ENFORCEMENT OF ZONING LAW	70
• Generally	70
• Zoning certificates	70
• When is it too late to enforce the law?	71
• Enforcement in the courts	73
EXPLANATION OF TERMS USED IN ZONING	76
INDEX	80